Global Television Formats Tasha Oren 2013-06-17 Winner of the 2013 SCMS

Best Edited Collection Award For decades, television scholars have viewed global television through the lens of cultural imperialism, focusing primarily on programs produced by US and UK markets and exported to foreign markets. Global Television Formats revolutionizes television studies by de-provincializing its approach to media globalization. It re-examines dominant approaches and their legacies of global/local and center/periphery, and offers new directions for understanding television's contemporary incarnations. The chapters in this collection take up the format phenomena from around the globe, including the Middle East, Western and Eastern Europe, South and West Africa, South and East Asia,

Australia and New Zealand, North America, South America, and the Caribbean. Contributors address both little known examples and massive global hits ranging from the Idol franchise around the world, to telenovelas, dance competitions, sports programming, reality TV, quiz shows, sitcoms and more. Looking to global television formats as vital for various cultural meanings, relationships, and structures, this collection shows how formats can further our understanding of television and the culture of globalization at large.

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time Mark Haddon 2009-02-24

A bestselling modern classic—both poignant and funny—narrated by a fifteen year old autistic savant obsessed with Sherlock Holmes, this dazzling novel weaves together an old-fashioned mystery, a contemporary coming-of-age story, and a fascinating excursion into a mind incapable of processing emotions. Christopher John Francis Boone knows all the countries of the world and their capitals and every prime number up to 7,057. Although gifted with a superbly logical brain, Christopher is autistic. Everyday interactions and admonishments have little meaning for him. At fifteen, Christopher's carefully constructed world falls apart when he finds his neighbour's dog Wellington impaled on a garden fork, and he is initially blamed for the killing. Christopher decides that he will track down the real killer, and turns to his favourite fictional character, the impeccably logical Sherlock Holmes, for inspiration. But the investigation leads him down some unexpected paths and ultimately brings him face to face with the dissolution of his parents' marriage. As Christopher tries to deal with the crisis within his own family, the narrative draws readers into the workings of Christopher's mind. And herein lies the key to the brilliance of Mark Haddon's choice of narrator: The most wrenching of emotional moments are chronicled by a boy who cannot fathom emotions. The effect is dazzling, making for one of the freshest debut in years: a comedy, a tearjerker, a mystery story, a novel of exceptional literary merit that is great fun to read.

All You Need Is a Pencil: The Stuck in a Car, Plane, or Train Activity Book

Joe Rhatigan 2014-04-08

Vacation--no homework, no school, and no more teacher's dirty looks!

Unfortunately, it usually begins with the family sitting around somewhere or stuck in a plane, train, or car.

BOR-IIIING! Fortunately, with these quizzes, puzzles, games, and doodles, the fun doesn't have to wait, even if you do. And you can do them anywhere--no electricity needed--with just a pencil. Fill in travel quotes, writing in the name of anyone who says one of the phrases on the page--like "I have to go to the bathroom" or "I think we're lost."

Play gomoku, a two-person game that's similar to tic-tac-toe. Plan the ultimate vacation--a week anywhere in the world. Draw creepy critters, try tongue-tripping-twisters, and unscramble anagrams. It's all so entertaining that no one will ask the dreaded question: Are we there yet?
